

For years I own the Domain Torah-Club.com, but for the same time the domain is off-line, as I was hoping to revive my original Domain Torah.de, still owned by some domain grabber who wants now close to 5.000 Euro.

Although I offered Boaz Michael from First Fruits of Zion the domain years ago, he didn't accept - lucky me - and hosts his Torah Club on His FFOZ.org Domain.

Just the other day, I left a message to let Boaz Michael know, that the firstborn from the dead is not the Jew Jesus, but Ephraim, the son of Josef (Jeremiah 31.9) in real life Ulf Diebel, who sat with him in Jerusalem to create his very first publications on King George.

While I was looking up the contacts for Ray and Sharon Sanders from Christian Friends of Israel, I found this excellent teaching from Boaz for the 30th Anniversary of CFI.

Boaz became the first Jew, who taught US Christians the Torah and explained in detail the Jewishness of Jesus.

Next to the traditional Churches, countless Christian Ministries started up in Jerusalem over the last 51 years, while I started a business.

Started in 1998, in 2019 Israel Monthly Publication Ltd celebrates 21 years of existence and sparked off dozens of ventures in Jerusalem, the United States and other nations.

The Upload of Boaz Michaels presentation happened in July 2015, right after I officially declared Ephraim as Priest of the Order of Melchizedek 25.5.15 in Berlin.

ICEJ PARTICIPATES IN GOP'S CHRISTIAN MEDIA SUMMIT

By: ICEJ Staff

Posted on: 14 Jan 2019 (All day)

The ICEJ was well represented at the second annual International Christian Media Summit, held in Jerusalem in mid-October and hosted by the Israel Government Press Office. Over 200 Christian reporters, publishers and broadcasters drawn from some 35 nations were addressed by Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu, President Reuven Rivlin, Deputy PM Michael Oren, Jerusalem Mayor Nir Barkat, former UN Ambassador Dore Gold and a number of other senior Israeli officials and top scholars and analysts. ICEJ Vice President David Parsons again served as the GPO's primary Christian consultant for the summit and about a dozen ICEJ national directors and local staff participated in the gathering.

The Christian Media Summit proved once again to be rich in content and well-timed as Israel continued to mark the 70th Anniversary of the nation's rebirth in 1948. PM Netanyahu was particularly relaxed at a briefing to kick off the summit, as he fielded some 20 questions – far more than he does at regular press conferences with the local and foreign press corps. He also invited US Ambassador David Friedman to bring a greeting, and the American Jewish envoy proceeded to quote Jesus in his remarks about the media battle over Israel, saying "the truth will set you free."
